We are currently on Week 11 of our plan – from Sun 26th September.

Today we will continue to take Holy Communion from the High Altar using the choir stalls to arrive and leave as normal. Should you wish to kneel at the altar then please do so. Holy Communion will still be in one kind only.

You can remove your masks should you wish as you come for communion or else you can remove them at the altar rail.

Please also come to the altar rail should you wish to have a blessing.

The freedom to wear a mask or not to wear a mask during singing should now be one of personal choice as per the Government's guidelines. However, the Government also states that when carrying out activities with more risk inside a small building then care should be taken. Whatever choice you make please bear in mind that there are medically vulnerable people in our congregation. I think out of conscience and that masks are worn to protect others I will choose to continue to wear a mask whilst singing at this point in time.

It is hoped that the Uniformed Organisations will come into Church in November for Remembrance Sunday.

Dates to Note:-

Wednesday 6th November – ABC (Adults, Babies and Children) Group will recommence in the Parish Hall – 9.30-11.00am – a very warm welcome to their new leader Nikki.

Sunday 10th October – Harvest Sunday – 10.30am

This year we will be supporting our Local Foodbank so please donate as you are able as we thank God for all the good things in our life and world whilst also remembering those who have nothing and those whose actions destroy your world. In Church.

Thursday 14th October – Young at Heart – 2.00-4.00pm

We are pleased to announce that the Young at Heart Group will restart on this day. Many of you, I am sure are looking forward to this reunion. This group runs on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month. In Parish Centre.

Wednesday 20th October – Knit & Natter – 1.00-3.00pm

This is a new group that will run weekly. You are welcome to bring any craft activity – there are people to help you if you are stuck OR simply come for a Natter and a cup of tea. In Parish Centre.

Saturday 30th October – Harvest Lunch – 12 noon

The first social in quite a while – why not come and join us for lunch – cottage pie, and pudding - £6.00. Tickets will be on sale soon. Our charity for this event will be a local mental health charity (to be announced). Quizzes on tables and lovely background music so you can still chat to your friends.

Tuesday 2nd November – All Souls – Dedication of Wall Hanging – 7.30pm

A service where we remember those loved ones that were special to us. Names of loved ones will be read out on the night and we will dedicate a wall hanging that was made for the community to remember those who died during the pandemic. It's a very special service.

Barbara Tate would like to thank you for all your ongoing food contributions to the food bank. At the moment the Foodbank is very short of sugar, toothbrushes and toothpaste and long life milk. If any of you can help the Foodbank would be very grateful.

After the Service today I am going on Retreat to Epiphany House in Truro for 6 days. I will be back for next Sunday in the meantime please contact Gail or Dawn in the first instance if you need anything. If they need to contact me they will. Be safe and well in the coming week.

My prayers are with you – Sharon
